Specializing in International Service of Process

About International Service of Process

There are two general methods of service abroad:

Formal Methods:

The "formal method" of service is the generally recommended method of service, particularly in countries that are signatories to an international treaty, such as the Hague Service Convention. This method is needed if it is anticipated that enforcement of judgment will be required.

The Hague Service Convention set forth the international rules related to service of process outside the originating country. Each nation that belongs to the Hague Service Convention agrees to abide by these international rules.

Letters Rogatory is the formal method to be used in countries that are not signers of the Hague Service Convention. In addition, the Inter-American Convention on Letters Rogatory controls the same issues between countries in North and South America. Letters Rogatory is also used when taking the deposition of a person in another jurisdiction.

The timeframe for service pursuant to formal methods can range from 1 to 5 months since proper procedures and/or diplomatic channels must be followed (typical turnaround time in most nations is 2-3 months). Costs are significantly lower than in informal service in most countries.

Generally, we recommend the formal method of service to insure a valid judgment.

No matter which method you choose, we handle the paperwork and logistics in completing the service in a timely and efficient manner. We do everything from preparing the letter of transmittal to the translation of your filed documents, as required.

Informal Methods:

Informal methods of service are available in most areas of the world where service by a non-attorney or private process server are . In general, if the country is not a signatory of an international treaty, service may be made by informal methods (similar to service in the United States). However, some countries such as Germany, Japan, Korea, China, Switzerland and Italy do not allow service by private process server and impose serious civil and criminal sanctions on those who violate their national sovereignty.

The advantage to utilizing informal service, in nations where it is available, is often the timeframe for completing service.
